Customer Release In Lieu of Layout

Stone products are of natural origin. Variations in color, texture, movements and markings are to be expected. Any samples furnished represent only the general coloration and structure of the particular stone. It is recommended that you the customer inspect and touch the actual slab of material you have chosen as it is common natural stone will contain pits and fissures. By signing below, you waive the layout appointment and allow Konkus Marble and Granite to determine template location, seams, etc. If you have not placed material on hold, Konkus Marble and Granite will select slab(s) for you.

Additionally, your signature is required to begin the production process.
